Brisbane Zero

Consent to publish my photo/video/story

I, ........................................................................................................

agree that the photographs/video taken of me today may be used by Brisbane Zero and/or the Australian Alliance to End Homelessness network to advocate for increasing supportive and social housing and integrated services.

☐ I do

☐ I do not

Consent for my legally recognised name to be printed alongside the photographs. If not, I wish to be identified by the name:

........................................................................................................

☐ I do

☐ I do not

Consent for photographs/video of my children to be used by Brisbane Zero.

I understand that these photos/video may be seen throughout the wider community and by government departments. They may be used in printed publications, websites, Social Media (eg Facebook, Twitter, Instagram), documentaries and in other communication material. (Photographs of children (where they can be identified) will not be used on Social Media.

Signed: ........................................................................................

Date: ...........................................................

Witness signature: ........................................................................

Name of Witness (please print) ................................................................

(If applicable, please see the next page for 'consent to publish my story'.)

Consent to publish my story

Name: ....................................................................................

Phone or email: ..............................................................

I, ............................................................................................

give my consent for the Brisbane Zero and/or the Australian Alliance to End Homelessness campaign network advocating for increased investment in supportive, social housing and integrated human services.to write a profile about me and my life stories.

I am aware and consent that all or part of my profile may be published in printed publications, websites, Social Media (eg Facebook, Twitter, Instagram), documentaries and in other communication material.

☐ I do

☐ I do not consent for my legally recognised name to be used as part of the profile.

If not, I wish to be identified by the name:

.....................................................................................

I am aware that I have the right to approve the profile before it is published.
Signed:

.....................................................................................

Date ......................................

Witness signature ...................................................................

Name of Witness (please print) ...................................................................